The Disunion Cry. For the past twelve months it has been the con stant occupation of the extremist press to urge the necessity of immediate dismion, or prepara-tion for some impending crisis which will call for such a dernier resort. But these croakers are too well known to excite any real apprehension among Union laving men, North or South. The fact is, the siman pure disunionists per se consti tnte but a small squad of the so called extremists The main body is composed of malcontents with the present organization of the Democratic party, who are ready to seize on any topic which offers opportunity for agitation, and thus promise to throw the party into pi and create the necessity for a new arrangement of its personnel which may suffice to elevate some discontented gentleman in the scale of political importance. Experience has already demonstrated that some of our politicians, who continually preach the doctrine that southern rights are endangered by the continu ance of the Union, are not adverse to a covert league with Abolitionism itself, if such a league will guarantee themselves an increased share of power and patronage.

But whether corruption or fanaticism constitutes the primal element of destructionist organization, the organization is, itself, too weak to offer an uncovered front on the field of popular contest. It resorts to all the indefinite outlines and vague uncertainties of a phantasmagoria. -To this day the public is uniformed as to the na ture or the extent of the impending danger of disunion so frequently and positively asserted, of late, in mere generalities. This species of op-eration has its advantages, so far as the partial success of its promoters is concerned. The conservative men of the country, sound to the core on the doctrine of State rights for the sake of the Union, and the Union for the sake of the State rights-honest and brave though they are -- are vet only men, after all; and like all men they may oceasionally be hoaxed by false reports. and startled by needless apprehensions. More than that, they may be deceived, temporarily. into fighting shadows, by intriguers, whose interest it is to divert their attention from the substantial issues which demand public atten-

Thus it is that a few organs of the conserva tive press have lately exhibited symptoms of ap-prehension for the safety of the Union. Whispers are circulated to the effect that something of consequed importance is now in process of con-coction among members of Congress, which threatens a speedy outburst of sectional conten-tion. Let us not be deceived. Members of Congreener not possessed of an exclusive privilege either to read the signs of the times, or to con troi the tendency of events. They may do much to obstruct, and more to assist, certain popular movements. But there are some things in our great world which are far beyond their reach. requires the warmth of sovereignty itself to hatch disunion, and not one sovereign voice has ever yet pronounced in favor of dissolution.— Newspaper correspondents may discover mares' ests-honorable members may shrug their shoulders and wear mysterious faces—violent dema gogues may raise a loud ery of false alarm—all this and more may become matter of daily recurrence, and yet the Union will remain sale in hands or its proper guardians, the people of the

The treasure of the Union and the treasure of State rights are both intrusted to their keeping .-There is no danger of their being lulled into a false security. When they are called upon to prepare for the worst-to face disunion itself for the sake of State's rights—their answer will be, "We are already prepared." Especially is it un necessary to excite the people of Virginia by repeated clamors to prepare for war in the milst of ealth can wear in safety the bonds of sisterly affection in common with all the States of this Confederacy. She is no pigmy to be chafed by the gentle bond of love and Union, and no power on earth is strong enough to convert this chain of valuntary Union into the shackles of tyrauny even in her moments of deepest tranquility. overwrought excitement, no defiant attitude to ward the members of the Confederacy, is necessa ry to maintain the dignity, the honor, and the sovereignty of Virginia.

And no imaginary danger will suffice to dimin ish, by one jot or tittle, her lovalty to the Union to which she has given so much, for which she has endured so much, and by which she has gain ed more than she has given, more than she has

There is no present danger of disunion, simply e is no proximate cause for disu Conservative Democrats need only to prepare to defeat an attempt against their party organ This is the only danger which can possibly result from all the intrigues and clamors which affect to assume the form of a movement for a dissolu

CAPTAIN SIMMS' MISSION TO FORMOSA .- We have had brief intimations that Captain Simms had been dispatched, by Com. Armstrong of the East India squadron, on an important mission to the Island of Formosa, and some newspaper cor respondents have at various times insinuated that the mission was of a retributive or aggressive character, and part of a scheme to obtain a foothold on Chinese Territory. Official despatch es from Com. Armstrong recently received at Washington explain the object of Captain Simms' mission, it being to ascertain the truth of an allegation that some shipwrecked Amerieans were held as prisoners on that Island. allegations were made by Mr. Mareus L. Wood ward, of the American brig Progressive Age, who represented that in 1856, while on shore at the port of Takow, an accidental discharge of his gun led to an attack upon him by the Chinese nhabitants, who fired at and wounded him, im prisoned him and a Mr. Gomez. who was with him and only released them upon the payment of a ransom of $650.

Capt. Simms does not appear to have obtained much satisfaction with respect to the main object of his mission. On reaching Takow he commu-nicated with the Chinese authorities, and through the chief mandarin transmitted to the Governor of the Island a communication from Com. Armstrong. The authorities appeared very willing to assist him in the prosecution of his inquiries, and he made several visits to the interior. He also visited the capital of the Island, the city of Tawanho. Com. Armstrong's communication to the Governor was. however, returned unanswered, on the plea that the Governor was not permitted to hold diplomatic intercourse with foreigners, with out special leave from the Emperor. A general denial was made, however, by the mandarin of Takow, in the name of the Governor, that there were any white prisoners on the Island, and that the authorities had any knowledge of the of the Progressive Age and the treatment alleged to have been received by Mr. Woodward.

ueh are the facts of a story of which much was made at the time. Capt Simms reports that his intercourse with the inhabitants of the Island was pleasant from first to last. He describes the as having a fertile soil, a dense population, and a high degree of cultivation. Also, that it is a place of considerable commercial importance, its principal products being coal, camphor and sulphur. Gold is said to be found in some parts of the Island.

We have received the thirty fourth Annual Re ort of the Kentucky Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. The Institution; in its buildings, instructors and officers, is enjoying a higher condition than at any former period. A first class edifice has been completed, and has been occupi ed during the winter. A more complete, com modious, and comfortable building is not possess ed by any public Institution in the country, and together with the former handsome buildings of the Institution is all that is desirable. It is warmed by Gould's Patent Heater, put up by Messrs. Reynolds, Kite & Tatum, of Cincinnati, which answers its purposes admirably, and keeps al the apartments warmed by it at a mild, summe

The east of the building, thus far. has been thirty-eight thousand nine hundred and forty-four dollars and ninety-seven cents. Some additional done-but no application has been made to the Legislature for an additional appropriation, al though that heretofore made was only seventeen to us and five hundred dollars.

The number of pupils in 1856, was eighty eight—in 1857, eighty six. A list of the Deaf Mutes in each county of the State, appended to the Report, reveals the astounding fact, that a majority of this afflicted class, are still uneducated. Many counties, having from five to ten, have never a ecntury. Such marvellous, not to say, criminal negligence in the parents and friends of these unfortunate children, is inexplicable. Experience has shown that unless benevolent and intelligent their behalf, to cause them to he sent to the lu stitution hundreds will remain in their ignorance and misfortune for life, their parents and imme diate friends, supinely leaving them to their

An appeal is therefore made to the legal, medcal, and clerical professions, and to the officials in every county, to interest themselves in behalf of the education of the Deaf and Dumb. This is attached to the Report, with directions to parents for home instruction of their children.

A second fact of dccp interest is that more than one-half of the Deaf and Dumb, have beome so by disease in infancy, and in most cases from want of proper care and medical treatment. Every child who has the measles, whooping

A third fact of equal interest, is that from ter to twenty per cent. of deaf mutes are the chil dren of cousins. It is greatly to be regretted that the law forbidding the marriage of first cousins did not pass the recent Legislature. Their marriage is a violation of a law of nature, as is evidenced by the affliction visited in almost every case upon their offspring in deafuess, blindness, and idiocy; and ought to be a violation of human laws also. The Commonwealth has the clear right to protect itself against these ill stared matches, whose offspring it has to sus tain, too frequently for life. It may be hoped riages of this kind and by proper attention and care of infants laboring under the diseases stated, the number of deaf mutes in the community

We omitted to notice in its prop er place, the marvellous health enjoyed by the pupils-only two deaths having o carred them since the year eighteen hundred and thirty five. CODES OF PRACTICE.

SECOND EDITION.

The proprietor of this paper has in preparation of the Commissioners who prepared the Codes, the second edition of the Civil and Criminal Codes of Practice for the State of Kentucky.

The new edition will contain all the amendments adopted by the Legislature since the first edition was published, and also references to all the decisions of the Court of Appeals, whether published or in manuscript, relating to the construction of said codes.

The Democratic Party vs. Mr. Lindsey's Resolutions.

In our last issue we published the resolutions on Federal Relations, offered by the American Representative from Franklin county during the ern Senate upon this issue. But in vain; they recent session of the General Assembly, together shirked the question. with an account of the manner in which they were treated by the Democratic House of Rep resentatives. The object of these resolutions was to get a deliberate expresssion of opinion upon the points embraced in them from the Dem ocratic members of the Legislature, they having in some way avoided their fair discussion before the people in every canvass which has ever yet been made in this State. It is well known that the Democratic party in this State never have boldly taken any position upon those of the resolutions which declare the opinions of the American party upon the foreign question, but have invariably avoided it by taking up some side issue, generally upon the slavery question or the everlasting Kansas Nebraska bill. But it was hoped that now that the Democrats had gain ed a majority in the State by gross misrepresen tatious of their own principles and those of their opponents, they would come out in a manly man ner and let the people know on what side of these questions they intend to stand. But those hopes were doomed to be disappointed; the Democrats laid the resolutions upon the table-aud thus, by a parliamentary assassination, virtually acknowledged their unwillingness to take issue upon the right to confer the rights of citizenship upon alieus-thus giving them the power to vote for Congressmen, United States' Senators, and for President of the United States, before they feasible and inalienable right to settle in a Ter are even citizens of the country-was clear and ritory belonging to the United States and there explicit, and the Americans of the Legislature hoist an independent standard of government, were anxious that the Democrats of the State and by virtue of their "inherent sovereignty" should make some authoritative expression of have the right to practice the vilest of erimes, opinion upon the subject and place themselves upon record upon it by some legislative declaration. that the United States have no right to protect It would have been a strange spectacle to have seen conservative old Kentucky declaring, is the Democratic doctrine of popular sovereignthrough her Legislature, that the free soil States ly. of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, have the right to bestow the rights of citizeuship upon aliens and free negroes in spite of the Constitu tion and the laws of Congress The Democrats generally shelter themselves with the plea that the Dred Scott decision declared such to be the law, although there is not an intelligent man of Territorial sovereignty, but at the same time among them who does not know that that decision did nothing of the kind It remanded the slave (Dred Scott) back to the service of his master It would have been pleasant for Kentuckians to have heard it declared that the Abolitionists in the northern States have the right to place the alien just from Europe, or the free negro of Ken tucky, who may have left the State on account of some crime, on au equal tooting politically with the free born Kentuckian! It would have been pleasant for southern men to have heard that the men elected to Congress by these ne groes and aliens could counterbalance the voteof as many men from the southern States, and thus help to swell the already too greatly preponderating power of the northern States, and assist in oppressing the south by electing men to Congress who are opposed to southern interests! Yet this is the position assumed by the southern Democratic press, and this is the question upon which it was desired to gain an expression of opinion from Democratic legislators, who, however, dodged the subject. We understand it to be the doctrine of the national Democracy that each State in the Union has the right to bestow the rights of citizenship upon the alien and the free negro within the borders of that State, and to permit them to take part in the Federal Government by voting for members of Congress and indirectly for U.S. Senators and for President But the Constitution prohibits to the States the power of making treaties and of declaring war reserving these powers to Congress. The General Government alone has the right to grant the protection of the United States flag. By permit ting aliens to vote in the States, for State and Federal officers, we will soon have the ridiculous spectacle presented in the northwest of some of the States of this Union being controlled, and the balance of power in Congreess being held by men elected, by those whom those States are unable to protect from reclamation by the Governments of which they were once subjects and ville Express. whom the United States are under no obligation a nice theory of sovereignly and government to be decided is as to which one of the two divisa great country like ours governed by the min-

The Kansas Nebraska bill, the Cincinnati plat the southern men finally only voted for it be tergiversations, or progress, of the hypocritical cause the northern Democrats would not repeal | Locofoco squad. the Missouri Compromise unless this concession was made to the free soil sentiment. ing that one section would gain and the other Our Minister to Berlin-His Expenseslose by permitting the odious blot to disgrace the statute book of national legislation. In 1856 when this vile feature in the Democratic platform and in the Kansus bill was denounced by American speakers, the Democrats visibly winced un der the scathing castigation and were obliged the people of the Territory might afterwards de cide whether or not aliens should vote in the Territory. But when the pro slavery Legislature of Kansas denied this right to aliens, Judge Cato, a familiar and tool of the President, declared that the act was nugatory because it was incousist ent with the organic act passed by Congress, es by Madison C. Johnson and James Harlan, two tablishing the Territory of Kansas. Thus these aliens were left free, in spite of the protests of the south, to vote, both at and after the first election, upon southern institutions to which they are opposed. The result is that they will assist in swelling the overwhelming majority against slavery in the State of Kansas. Mr. Buehanan proclaimed the doctrine in his Inaugural in its broadest terms, but it was so repugnant to outhern men that many of his organs in the south denied that there was any such sentiment in that Inaugural. Under these circumstances we felt auxious to know whether the Democratic Legislature of Kentucky stood by their national platform and their President or with the south-

The President of the United States late y recommended to Congress to increase the army, for the avowed purpose of putting down rebellion in Utah. The pretense is raised that this is sought to be done because the Mormons have resisted United States officers and will not submit to the authority of the Fed eral Government. But the truth of the matter is as has been declared by various Democrats in Congress, that this is a mere pretext, but that the as follows: true object is to suppress the vile institutiun of polygamy which is bringing our coun try into disrepute among all civilized nations .-But how to put down polygamy and at the same time acknowledge the Democratic doctrine that Congress has no power whatever of legislation over the Territories is a puzzler to many good Democrats, and in order to do their duty, and at Extras, the same time appear consistent, they have de clared Utah to be in a state of rebellion; and this, notwithstanding the numberities of Utah declare that they are willing to submit provided there is no interference with their institutions, which the Democrats assert they have the right to settle in their own way. That is, that a parcel of beggar ly foreigners-of whom the Mormons are chief ly composed-the very lowest seum of the The resolution denying that the States have earth, the vilest malefactors on the face of the habitable globe-the large majority of whom have never been naturalized and who are under no outh to support our Constitution-have the indeunder the color of their precious religion; and themselves from this nuisance and disgrace. This

> Mr. Lindsey's resolutions boldly and unequiv acally assert that the power does exist in Con gress to put down this monstrosity. The Demo erats refused to take any position upon the ques tion. They were evidently loath to say anything which would be inconsistent with their pet ideas leared to declare that the Government has no power to protect itself against this evil. The New Mexico and Utah bills reserved to Congress the right to revise the acts of the Territo rial Legislature, and if disapproving of any o them to render all such acts null and void. Now it is evident that if Congress has the right to abrugate the acts of the Legislature of a Territory, it must also have the power to legislate for that Territory. This right of Congress to revise ture was again asserted in Toombs' bill, in the case of the test oaths established by the Legisla ture of Kansas and other laws passed by that Leg islature, although no such power was specially reserved to Congress in the Kansas bill as it was plause. in the Utah bill. Any lawyer will admit that if Congress has the power to say what the Legislature of a Territory may or may not do, it has also the power to directly legislate for that Territory. And as the Democrats have claimed the Compromise measures of 1850 as their own peculiar property, we contend that they thereby admit the power of Congress over the Territories, however inconsistent with their various other po sitions it may seem. If, then, Congress has any power of legislation over the Territories, there certainly can be no case in which it could more rightfully and appropriately be exercised than in checking this outrageous practice of polygamy in Utah. It is ridiculous to talk of their religion countenancing the custom. If a fanatical reli gion countenances murder, theft, or treason those crimes should nevertheless be punished.

The Louisville Democrat may be a Demo cratic paper, but it differs widely from the Demo cratic party in its construction of the principles of that party, and its application of those princi ples; and it can neither be denied nor disguised that it is doing more to embarrass and defeat the Democratic party than all the opposition papers in the State, or, we might say, out of it.—Mays-to protect from such reclamation. This is truly against Mr. Harney to be true, the next question Trieste. ions constitute the Democratic party. The Louisville Democrat occupies the position held by nearly all Northern Democrats, including the form, and President Buchanan's Inaugural, all ablest men of that party, as also the position of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The inadequacy of the salaendorsed and approved of alien suffrage in the Mr. Buchanan in his Inaugural and in his instruc-Territories, and the vile doctrine was considered part of the Democratic faith. It was a ritual by which they were all sworn. But when the vote North; hence "nationality" is no longer the pecuwas first taken in the Senate upon the alien fea liar attribute of that faction. Mr. Harney is ture of the Kansas bill, every Southern Senator consistent with the "construction he has given to voted for confining the right of suffrage to citi. the principles" of the Democratic party for zens of the United States, while all the Northern the last three years, when he was set forward as Democrats and Black Republicans voted against the very embodiment of Democracy; his princisuch limitation of the elective franchise; and pal defect is that he has not kept up with the

He appears to be bemoaning his destiny in being sent to starve or beg in the Prussiau capital. One of his friends gives to the public, through the press, the following elegant extract from one of his private letters, just received:

It is said that submission will localize the question of slavery in that Territory. He didn't believe it. If that question is to be debated, it will be debated here, but must be debated in the right way. There should be no excitement.—

Then admire the self denial of Wright, who has to pay 1,200 tha lers (equal to $840) for house rent, and 1,000 thalers (equal to $700) for servants' hire, making $1,540 a year for these two most important items of housekeeping. Then observe, too, that Wright has gone to the enormous expenditure of 3,000 thalers (equal to $2,490) for furnishing his house, consisting of eleven rooms, and any one who has ever furnished, in plain style, a house consisting of eleven rooms in this country, will wish he could have done it as cheaply as the American minister at Berlin has turnished his-Now, as we all know that Gov. This is a very heavy sum, truly, for the rep resentative of a great power like the United States, to expeud in a year at a great European it remembered, however, that the gentleman who bemoans, in the letter we have quoted, the enormous expenditure he is put to. receives as his salary from the United States Treasury, the sum of $12,000 a year, so that after all, when hommony, house rent, furniture and everything else are paid for, he ought still to have the neat little surplus of $8,362. THE WINTER IN EUROPE.-Contrary to the experience of early and mid-winter on this side of the Atlautic, those seasons in Europe have this year been remarkably severe, even in rather Southern latitudes. In the Island of Malta, which is not far from the African coast, the snow was several feet deep, and this was the first snow storm of consequence there since 1812, a year that will be ever memorable for the disasterous Russian campaign of the first Napuleon. At Constantinople, up to the 3d ult., snow fell for fifteen days in succession, and so terrible a winter had not been experienced in Turkey for twenty years. The navigation with Odessa was entirely closed, and even the Greek Islands were clothed in white. For the first time in a century the river Po, iu Italy, had been frozen tight, so that men, horses and vehicles passed over its surface. In Smyrna, generally so free from winter, the frost and snow have occasioned much inconveuieuce and suffering. In many of the towns in Turkey and Greece the roofs of houses had fallen in from the weight of snow accumulated upon them. This reminds us of the records of former ages, when, between the years 1,000 and 1,200, the Tiber and even the Adriatic Sea were sever-Assuming the charge preferred by the Express al times frozen hard—the latter near Venice and Congressional.

Washington, March 18. [Continuation of Mr. Crittenden's speech Mr. C., speaking of the Missouri Compromise ters. just received:

'I am living in a large building, with 11 rooms; fathers did? We are united in language and in Shall we not live in peace and harmony as our nursed into colossal proportions.

Alluding to previous debates, he said he was much gratified in learning from them the com parative resources of the two sections of The Senator from South Carolina had detailed the resources of the South. The gentleman from Maine had given those of the North and while listening to them it seemed to him this was the most natural union in the world. these sections apart would make a nation of which any man would be proud to be a citizen, what a magnificent union it makes when you put both together even where there is discord, but lulled. What a summer sea lies before us of boundless prosperity. In concluding, he said he should vote on the question as a Senator of the United States of America, and not as a sectional man. He owed allegiance to no section. The course he would approve would be to pass a haw by which the constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the people, and if it was ratified he would admit Kansas into the Union.

Mr. Trumbull, after complimenting Mr. Crittenden's speech, proceeded to state his objections to Lecompton. We are, he said, in the midst of a great strife. Pass this bill, say one party, and there will be a civil war. Reject, say anoth er, and there will be a dissolution of the Union. But for the slavery question lying at the bottom he apprehended lew would be opposed to admis sion under this constitution. He held the im mediate cause of our present difficulty to be the passage of the Kansas Nebraska act.

He then entered into a view of the slavery question since 1850, discussing the Dred Scott decision. He controverted the views of the Senator from Louisiana, and followed at great length the cases cited by that Senator Thence proceeding to the general question, he denied the doc trine that the constitution of the United States extends slavery into the Territories, contending hat the Constitution doesn't inself operate over the Territories except by act of Congress.

Shall the individual political decisions of Judges in the Dred Scott case overthrow the de cisions of Congress extending over a period of nearly fifty years? Congress then having power to make all needful rules, and believing as he did slavery wasn't beneficial, he thought Con gress unglit to prevent its recognition in Territories, so that all new States shall be free. Mr Trumbull recapitulated the outrages and frauds in that Territory, which culminated in the Le compton Constitution. He looked on the Kan as question as no insignificant question.

Hedidn't know what would follow the passage of this constitution. He couldn't l'oresce the co equenses. He wouldn't be responsible for them nt he knew what would follow its rejection l'here would be peace and quietness. All Kan sas asks from Congress is to cease legislation.— Here people can get along very well now that they have rescued their government from the hands of usurpers. All they ask is to be let alone, and in due time they will frame a consti-

At the close of Mr. Trumbull's speech there was some conversation about meeting at eleven o'clock in the morning; also about evening ses ions, but the subjects were finally postpoued to

WASHINGTON, March 19. Senute .- Mr Bell concurred in Mr. Bigler's ex lanation of Mr. Toombs's bill. It was to bring Kansas into the Union without the vote of the people on the constitution. But how, he a-ked, shall we cut the gordian knot of Kansas politics by the sword or by peaceful means? The President, said Mr. Beil, recommends the admission o Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution main taining the legality of that instrument and its

Mr Bell here cutered into an examination of ie organic law to see if it conferred the nowe pon the pe ple of Kansas to form a constitution whenever they please without reference to time or population. He was sure it conveyed no such ower. If it did, it would have a most ischievous effect, Utah, New Mexico, Nebraska, Washington, and Dicotah might all come in his session under such a principle. There then, ne said, is heresy put forth at the threshold by he President. Next as to the legality of the Lecompton con titution, he referred to the authenticated records successive frauds, and expressed surprise that enators in the face of such evidence could ar que in favor of the legitimacy of that instrument. It would, he contended, take twice two thous and troops to force that constitution upon the eople of Kansas.. Mr. Bell then went into a lengthened resume of the Presidential campaign of 1852, showing th feelings then existing in relation to the Missouri compromise. The successful candidate of that campaign on coming into office pledged himself to maintain the peace of the country, but within ight months, by some diabolical object, the olitical sky was changed, and a tempest arose that is still raging. The Free Soilers in the House and Senate had largely increased, and will contime to increase. Do the Southern gentlemer wish to multiply them still faster? He though one of the worst results of the Kansas Nebraska bill was to cement and to lay the foundation o in organization of this sectional party. Referring to the assertion that the admission of Kausas would allay the excitement, he prophesied that it would take three years it soonest before it would subside. In conclu sion, he commented severely on Mr. Seward's threat that agitation must continue till the South eases to seek the extension of slavery under the Federal Constitution, and expressed his own unalterable attachment to the Union.

The Senate then adjourned. House .- The Speaker announced the following s a committee to investigate the charge in rela ion to the stle of the Pennyslvania Bank building in Philadelphia: Messrs. Florence, Maclay, Gilman, Scales, and Waldron. The consideration of the volunteer bill was hen resumed. Senate .- Mr. Gwynn's resolution of inquiry ncerning the massacre of the California emi grants in Utah was passed.

Mr. Foster commenced a Kansas speech.

House.—Mr. Faulkner, of Virginia, from the ninority of the committee, offered an amendment, as follows: "To retain that part of the ill providing for the organization of a regiment unted volunteers for the defense of the from tiers of Texas; but, instead of authorizing the President to accept the services of four regiments of volunteers for the purpose of quelling the disturbances in Utah and for the protection of the supply and emigrant trains, and the suppreson of Indian hostilities, to add to the present military establishment one regiment of dragoons of the Washington Union having induced that and two regiments of infantry to serve for two
